ROAR!
SHRIEK!
ROAR!

The red ruffed lemurs
shouted their morning song,
from the summits of the Masoala Peninsula down to the waters of the Bay of Antongil.

PREVIEW

The branch tore away and fell down,
down,
DOWN!

The twins weren't hurt but
they were very,
very scared.

“Look!” said the girl.

“Two baby lemurs!”

“They’re twins, just like us!”
said the boy.

“Can we keep them for pets?”
said the girl.

“Please?” said the boy.
